Chapter 1 by Ruby and Sassy

Ruby,
eyes grassy green,
fur black as night,
16 pounds
oh so big,
I'll carry you
no matter how big,
I'll love you
to the moon and back.

dedicated to Ruby, my fat cat

Chapter 2 by Adisoccer1223

They say that freedom isn't real, but I see it.
They say that freedom isn't real, but I hear it, like a bell.
It cries with the crack of the whip on the dead man's shoulders
It echoes in the sobs of sorrow from those who have lost too much already.
It is
The footsteps
Pounding
On the gravel
The color of skin

Loud and Clear.

Chapter 3 by Erika A

The craft of insolence
Has been mastered by men,
Rape
War
Superiority

The art of ignorance
In more ways define men,
Trade
Wrath
Bigotry

And yet,

The philosophy of acceptance
Cannot be grasped by men.
